

THE ILLINOIS FREE TRADER.

Black List.

Thomas J. Potter, of Vermilionville, La Salle county, Ill., subscriber for this paper, and left the country without paying for it. Printers and others, would do well by keeping a sharp eye on him, as he is well calculated to defect.

David W. Bates, once a resident of Ottawa, and now resides near Hennepin, subscriber for two copies of this paper and has not paid for either. One copy was sent to his father, at Victory, Cayuga co., N. Y. The public should be on their guard, for a man that will thus defraud the press is mean enough to steal the pewter off a blind man's cane.

Salmon Rutherford, at Dresden, La Salle county, owes us $2, which we never expect to receive. He collected money for the editor of the Chicago Democrat, and has never paid it over. Let our merchants, landlords, tailors, and others be on their guard. Rutherford is said to be a very mean man!

Any newspaper in the United States or Territories, that will copy the above, will be entitled to a similar favor from us, should they publish a "Black List."

YORKVILLE STORE.

Messrs. BOUGHTON & PARKE, [from the City of New York.]

RESPECTFULLY invite the attention of the public to a large and fresh stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Crockery, Boots & Shoes, &c.

Which they have selected with great care, and now hold on sale at the old stand of R. S. DUNN, Esq., at Yorkville, Kendall county, Ill.

Good and desirable new Goods—no puffing.

Fully believing this, we shall let our goods tell their own story. Doing it unnecessary to enumerate the particular articles and quantities, we shall ask the attention of the good people of Illinois to our general stock; assuring them that at all times it will give us pleasure to exhibit our goods, and trust that qualities and prices will not fail to please.

Perhaps it will not be amiss, to ask the ladies to examine some articles that may not be found in every country store. We refer to a lot of a new and splendid article for dresses; Alapaca Lustres, for Cloaks; Syp. Blk. & Blue Blk. Rou De Soi Silks; Highland Plaids, for winter dresses.

Which, together with a large assortment of STAPLE GOODS, makes our stock equal to any in the State.

Here we would just observe, that our long acquaintance and connexion with New York merchants will give us advantages that cannot be equalled. Call and see.
